

The Sanbornton Historical Society Presents

A Comedy by Bob Kinerk and Andrew Rosenthal

Presented July 30 and 31, 2010
Old Sanbornton Town Hall

To benefit
The Sanbornton Historical Society

SETTING OF SCENES

Scene I Berth of the Daughter of the Lake

Scene II Ah Pun's Chinese Restaurant

Scene III City Hall

INTERMISSION

Scene IV Studio of Annabelle Acres Spew

Scene V Storeroom of Waterfront Saloon

Scene VI Grand Ballroom of the Daughter of the Lake

Director: Lindley Kinerk

Musical Director: Andy Jepson

CAST

Captain Bilgely	Peter Brown
Postman	Bob Burress
Alice	Kathy Chapman
Mrs. Beresford.....	Gail Morrison
Snavers.....	Dave Witham
Julius	Andy Jepson
Corabelle Bilgely	Ashley Frame
Horace Dewberry.....	Chuck Doyle
Ah Pun.....	Steve Ahlgren
Brazen Creature	Rebecca Frame
Miss Plumply	Linda Salatiello
The Mayor.....	Mark Kozielec
Amaryllis.....	Miah Bailey
Hettie.....	Karen Ober
Lottie.....	Julie Dylingowski
Dora.....	Allison Rowley

CREW

Accompanist	Mary Ruth Scott
House Manager.....	Paula Craig
Stage Manager & Props Mistress	Lillian Ochs
Set Crew	Dave Witham, John Olmstead, Jack Potter
Usher.....	Faith Tobin
Costumes.....	Linda Salatiello Evelyn Auger Becky Guyer Paula Craig
Lights.....	Jim Wells Bill Tobin

INTRODUCING OUR CAST AND CREW

Steve Ahlgren (Ah Pun/Sanbornton) Steve starred in “Casey at the Bat” in the eighth grade, performed many improv acts in college, studied under Van McLeod to become the area’s most unfortunate clown and has been in numerous plays with The Streetcar Company. When not acting, he builds and restores houses and barns with his son, Josiah. On a good day, you can find him at home weeding the garden with his lovely wife, Mary.

Miah Bailey (Amaryllis/Laconia, Belmont) At age 10-1/2, this is her fourth production. She has performed in two talent shows and recently was part of the scenery crew in her class play. She LOVES her family, baking and farm animals, particularly her pet chicken, Lily.

Peter Brown (Capt. Bilgely/Alexandria) Peter, taskmaster, and his son and grandson repair and restore furniture. They also attempt to plug holes in sailboats and canoes –46 years last May – and celebrated a successful plugging last week.

Bob Burress (Postman/Franklin) After teaching for “a number of years,” Bob and wife, Lynn, travel due to her work. He has four children, who all have been involved in musical theatre. Now it’s his turn to carry on the family tradition.

Kathy Chapman (Alice/Plymouth) This is the first play Kathy has been in and she appreciates that it’s about a boat. Kathy spent seven years prior to living in NH on a sailboat in the Caribbean. Now that her family has grown and moved away, who knows – the possibilities are endless. Perhaps even another play!

Paula Craig (House Manager, Costumes, Program/Sanbornton) My passions are the theatre, reading and traveling with my husband, Art. I'm so happy to be part of this really funny show to benefit the SHS.

Chuck Doyle (Horace Dewberry/Sanbornton) MBA program coordinator at PSU by day and preacher's wife by night. Played the "Absent Minded Professor" in elementary school, 4th chair Trumpet in the Riyadh Saudi Arabia Symphony Orchestra and is a supply organist. Musical career inspired by my Mother Joan who insisted on accordion lessons at age 10. Thanks Mom!

Julie Dylingowski (Lottie/Northfield) This role is a first for Julie who, although it has been great fun, plans to stick to her day job as an administrative assistant. Thanks to her family for all their support and to the entire cast and crew for making this a wonderful experience.

Ashley Frame (Corabelle/Gilford) After spending the bulk of her year teaching French and directing plays at Nute High School, Ashley has really enjoyed the opportunity to be on the other side of the curtain! She sends warmest thanks to her husband, family and friends!

Rebecca Frame (Brazen Creature/Bristol) What a hoot this has been! Thanks to cast and crew -- especially Miss Plumply, who suggested that I try out for the play. Gretchen and Adelaide, I hope you have fun watching Grandma being silly.

Andy Jepson (Julius, Music Director/Sanbornton) What's a minister doing in a sleazy saloon? Having a ball, as I have for 30 years of "Steamboat!" This play has been part of my life for longer than almost anything but breathing. When I'm not hanging around steamboats and saloons, I'm a minister in Bartlett, a gold and silversmith in Tilton and a backpacker, singer, skier, reader and/or traveler, wherever I get the chance.

Lindley Kinerk (Director/Sanbornton) I've loved this play since . . . golly, since 1978. This group of otherwise mature, serious, sedate citizens has been a wild and crazy, never-a-dull-moment gang of thespians to direct. I usually manage to keep myself out of trouble with, in alphabetical order, backpacking, eating bonbons, knitting, making music and skiing.

Mark Kozielec (The Mayor/Sanbornton) Episcopal priest by day, St. Valentine's Day cabaret impresario by night. Mark most recently appeared as Scrooge in "A Christmas Carol" at Whittier School, Dunellen, NJ. Mark is most thankful to God for all of the continuing surprises!

Gail Morrison (Mrs. Beresford/Sanbornton; Recording Sec. SHS) Gail spends most of her time in politics, government and the law. Her first part was in the eighth grade as the Wicked Witch of the West in "The Wizard of Oz" and her last role was in college as the lead in "The Lovely Margaret."

Karen Ober (Hettie/Sanbornton) After years away from the stage, (and you will see why), she returns to entertain and amaze you. Her real loves are her family: Steve, Melanie, Jill and Miah. Hobbies include quilting, spinning, gardening, floral design and numerous other crafts. Karen and Steve have a farm business producing the liquid gold of NH in maple and honey products.

Lillian Ochs (Stage Manager, Props/Sanbornton) I am thoroughly enjoying my first involvement with the theatre. It's a pleasure to work with so many great people, who are also very talented actors. My husband, Tom, and I enjoy living in Sanbornton.

Allison Rowley (Dora/Sanbornton) A retired innkeeper with the heart of a "ham." This is her first play since her starring role in high school. She's sure she's destined for stardom!

Linda Salatiello (Miss Plumply, Costumes/Sanbornton; VP SHS) As an active member of the SHS, Linda couldn't resist the opportunity to help out with this fundraiser and get dressed up in period garb. She can't wait to "strut her stuff" in this really fun production.

Mary Ruth Scott (Accompanist/Sanbornton) Music has brought so much joy to my life! Now, after teaching and accompanying for so many years, I'm thrilled to be a part of this funny, talented cast and crew!

David Witham (Snavers/Sanbornton; Pres. SHS) I actually am a real steamboat captain. My drama roles started in the 1960's thru 2000 as a teacher and then administrator on stage in student productions in three high schools. I performed in the Madrigal Dinner Theatre at Gilford Methodist Church for over 20 years.

At the end of the show, please join us in singing:

All: Lake Winnepesaukee

Ladies: Pine clad hills along the shore where sweet soft breezes blow.

Gentlemen: Awesome blaze of brilliant hue
where sunset waters glow.

All: Lake Winnepesaukee
Lake Winnepesaukee

Our thanks to YOU, our audience, and to everyone who assisted in tonight's production.

Our extra special thanks to:

BG Costumes for many of the costumes
Sant Bani School for the lights
Streetcar Company for set, props and costumes
Town of Sanbornton for use of the Old Town Hall
The Common Man for use of tables and chairs
Wesley Arts of Gilford Methodist Church for the stage